

Directive for The NLLACT Movement

Sponsors: Republic of India, Islamic Republic of Iran, Russian Federation

Signatories: Republic of Cuba, Arab Republic of Egypt, Federal Republic of Nigeria, Cuba

Directive: By the bloc of nations affected by the NLLACT movement:

The Economic and Social Council hereby:

1. Proposes

Curbing any and all forms of violence between national forces and protesters by:

- i. Calling upon the General Assembly First Committee (DISEC) to enforce disarmament of all involved parties;
- ii. Call on the immediate deployment of an NLLACT Peacekeeping Mission by the SC, an integrated, multi-faceted, decentralized peacekeeping operation in order to simultaneously tackle maintaining and stabilizing peace and security in the scattered regions suffering from violence where:
  - a. Each region struggling with conflict (India, Nigeria, Iran, etc.) will be sent a sub-operation with their complete logistic and technical teams, as well as their intricate agenda tailored for the specific nature of the situation in the designated region;
  - b. States having the capacity to contribute with the possible number of troops will provide the manpower for this initiative;
  - c. The initial period of this mission will be for three months and member states will convene for a re-evaluation for the possible extension of the mission after the elapsing of said period;
  - d. The mission must ensure that troops abide by the Institute of International Law of 1971, Ten Rules Code of Personal Conduct for Blue Helmets, and other rudimentary pieces of international legal framework that will guarantee the protection of fundamental human rights of the protesters involved, as well as the national forces and peacekeeping troops;
- iii. Encourage, with the expert assistance of the United Nations Office on Legal Affairs (UNOLA), the passing of national legislation in states affected by violence as a result of the NLLACT movement to establish temporary curfews in respective states in order to de-escalate ongoing tensions between involved parties;
- iv. Activate a high level of investigations by every state investigation party and come up with a unified report;

2. Demands the eradication of the toxic NLLACT narrative of radical communism in order to mitigate the propagation of baseless political ideology mainly through ensuring youth engagement, and such initiatives might include:
  - i. Creating advisory youth councils that discuss contemporary national issues and produce solutions that, if adequate, may be taken into consideration by the country's legislative body during their substantive deliberations;
  - ii. Promoting progressive dialogue between youth interested in political matters and experts in order to focus on implementation of capacity-building support and innovative approaches, especially considering the youth's unique perspective on modern approaches such as digitalization and social networks;
  - iii. Establishing awareness building programs and youth-led civil society organizations and private sector stakeholders such as social media industry actors to strengthen youth resilience against radical political ideology;

3. Urges the provision of humanitarian aid to support the various governments in compensating the casualties involved and state properties that have been vandalized through:
  - i. Launching global donation initiatives through the General Assembly Committee on Contributions in order to rebuild houses of victims with the assistance of UN-Habitat;
  - ii. Proposing an urgent emergency response division inviting medical volunteers to travel to those affected countries and helping them in medical treatment through medical NGOs such as Medecins Sans Frontieres, and creating channels of providing medical assistance through the World Health Organization to those who have been affected;
  - iii. Providing proper food and combating malnutrition for those harmed by the conflict through the Food and Agriculture Organization;
  - iv. Integrating all of the previous efforts in an attempt to aspire to the 2030 Sustainable Development Agenda;

4. Requests holding a tribunal to prosecute and investigate the accomplices of oligarch Sergei Roldugin for violations of international law;

5. Requests that the Secretary General provides a comprehensive report on the progressions of the Economic and Social Council's and other organs of the United Nations's efforts towards this issue.

Through these measures, the Economic and Social Council expects that these actions will help in the managing of the various aspects of the crisis at hand.